

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Countable and uncountable nouns

Translate the phrases into your language.

- 1 Have you got an apple for lunch today?
.....
- 2 She's got a sandwich and some crisps in her lunch box.
.....
.....
- 3 We've got some eggs, some potatoes and some tomatoes, but we haven't got any meat.
.....
.....
- 4 Do you eat an orange every day?
.....
- 5 Let's make a salad. We've got tomatoes and carrots, but we haven't got any olives.
.....

2 There is / There are

Translate the phrases into your language.

- 1 Is there any tomato ketchup in the fridge?
.....
- 2 There are some good restaurants in town.
.....
- 3 There isn't a canteen in my school.
.....
- 4 How many hot dogs are there? There are a lot of hot dogs!
.....
.....
- 5 How much milk is there in the fridge?
There isn't any.
.....

3 Ordering food

Translate the phrases into your language.

- 1 What can I get you?
.....
- 2 Can I have a sandwich, please?
.....
- 3 What filling would you like?
.....
- 4 I'd like ...

- 5 Anything else?
- 6 Here you are.
- 7 How much is that?

4 Review

Translate the dialogue into your language.

- A: Hi! What can I get you?
B: Hello! Have you got any burgers?
A: No, we haven't! We've got some sandwiches, some pizzas, some hot dogs and some chips!
B: I'd like a sandwich, please.
A: What filling would you like?
B: Cheese and tomato, please.
A: OK. Anything else?
B: Yes, I'd like some crisps and an apple.
A: OK. Anything else?
B: Yes, I'd like a fizzy drink.
B: We haven't got any fizzy drinks.
A: OK. Have you got any water?
B: Yes, we've got some water.
A: Here you are. Anything else?
B: No, thanks. How much is that?
A: Seven euros fifty.
B: Here you are. Thanks, bye.
A: Thank you. Bye!