My city is very big. It's in the north-west of England and has got a long history. The Beatles were from my city – yes, it's Liverpool! There are lots of historical buildings and museums in Liverpool. There are shops, cinemas, parks, markets and sports facilities too. You can go shopping in the big shopping centre in the centre of the city. In August, there is a free music festival, so you can listen to music in the centre where the Beatles played their music many years ago. Liverpool is also very famous for its two big football teams. People in Liverpool love football!
