

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 be going to

Translate the sentences into your language.

- 1 Chiara is going to start university next week.

- 2 She is going to move to Brighton.

- 3 She is going to share a flat with other students.

- 4 She is going to study hard and pass all her exams!

2 Present continuous for future

Translate the sentences into your language.

- 1 Daniel is cooking dinner for us tonight.

- 2 We are planning to drive to the coast.

- 3 He is playing tennis with my sister this weekend.

- 4 I am leaving tomorrow.

3 Quantity

Translate the sentences into your language.

- 1 How much money do you have?

- 2 Is there enough cake for everyone?

- 3 There's not much milk left in the fridge.

- 4 A: Have you got any toys for the children?
B: We have a lot in the garage. I'll get them now.

- 5 I have a little bit of work to do, then we can go.

- 6 She has a few questions she wants to ask you.

- 7 They are a little bit nervous about flying.

- 8 He has a few very close friends.

4 Expressing surprise and disbelief

Translate the phrases into your language.

- 1 What?

- 2 That can't be true!

- 3 You're joking!

- 4 That's impossible!

- 5 I don't believe you!

- 6 Are you serious?

- 7 No way!

5 Review

Translate the dialogue into your language.

- Rosie: Angus, can you lend me some money, please?
Angus: Are you serious? You still haven't given me back the twenty pounds from last month.
Rosie: I know, but there is a concert on next week and the tickets are cheap but I don't have enough money to get them.
Angus: How much do you need?
Rosie: Well, the tickets are £50 each and I want to get two. I don't want to go alone.
Angus: What? That's a lot of money, you know.
Rosie: Oh please, Angus. I'll wash Mum's car and cut the grass for the next six months so I can definitely pay you back.
Angus: Well ... I suppose so ...
Rosie: Thank you, thank you!

