

Good at + ing

I'm good at doing experiments.

She's good at riding bikes.

I'm not good at climbing trees.

He's not good at flying kites.

Possessive apostrophe

Oliver is Alex's uncle.

Alex is Bob's grandson.

Paul and Molly are Alex's cousins.

Lisa is Alex's aunt.

Like / Don't like + ing

I like singing.

He loves learning about Science.

She really doesn't like dancing.

Have to + infinitive

You have to wear school uniform.

You have to do your homework.

You don't have to read two books every week.

What's the matter? + adjectives

What's the matter?

What's the matter with Conner?

What's the matter with Mrs Harvey?

I'm tired.

He's ill.

She's busy.

Should / Shouldn't

I'm tired. You should go to bed.

I'm scared. You shouldn't watch horror films.

