

1  27 Listen to the dialogue. Then work with a partner. Read the dialogue again and again until your teacher tells you to stop. Each time you start again, change roles.

A: Where are you from?

B: I'm from L.A.

A: Los Angeles?

B: Yeah.* I'm a famous actor.

A: Really?

B: Yeah. I'm Leonardo / Angelina.

A: Dicaprio? / Jolie?

B: Yeah.

A: No way!*

* Yeah /jeə/ means 'Yes'.

* No way! means 'I don't believe you'.

2 Read the dialogue again, but this time a bit faster. When you begin to remember what to say, look into your partner's eyes.

3 Put the paper down. Act out the dialogue as a scene. What is the situation? Who are these people? Try to move and make expressions with your face and body. Really act it out!
