

Student A

1 Read the information and look at the film posters. Then talk to your partner and agree on the perfect film to go and see together this weekend.

You like horrors. You're not into fantasy films.
 You don't mind comedies or martial arts films.
 You don't like love stories. You're really into westerns.

A: What film do you want to see? What about Vampire?

B: No, I'm not really into horror films.
The perfect film is Wild West.

2 Complete the table about the TV programmes you watch. Then ask questions to complete the table for your partner.

I often watch:	I never watch:
Students' own answers
My partner often watches:	My partner never watches:
Students' own answers

Student B

1 Read the information and look at the film posters. Then talk to your partner and agree on the perfect film to go and see together this weekend.

You don't like horrors. You don't mind fantasy films.
 You hate comedies and martial arts films.
 You like love stories. You love westerns.

A: What film do you want to see? What about Vampire?

B: No, I'm not really into horror films.
The perfect film is Wild West.

2 Complete the table about the TV programmes you watch. Then ask questions to complete the table for your partner.

I often watch:	I never watch:
Students' own answers
My partner often watches:	My partner never watches:
Students' own answers

