Daniel, Nick and William are brothers. They live in a big house in Oxford. They think it's a great place to live. They are very busy boys! At the moment, they are all doing different things. Daniel is in his bedroom studying German. He loves languages and wants to live in Germany. He reckons it's better than living in England, but all his friends live in England. Nick is reading a book. He reads three or four books every month. He wants to study English at university and be a writer. William is playing the guitar. He plays the guitar every day and he works very hard. He loves music. They're going to the cinema tonight with their mum and dad.
